

HOT MEALS

Where to go when you're looking for warm food

Holiday Drop-In Hours & Meal Times

The following is a holiday listing put out by the Toronto Drop-In Network (TDIN), which is a network of more than 50 drop-in centres in Toronto.

Please note that the locations and times can change. To avoid disappointment, call the phone number listed below on the date you plan to go. You can also call 211 to ask for the location of hot meals. As well, check the meal options provided by Out of the Cold (see below). Out of the Cold offers hot meals as well as overnight stays through the winter, often in church basements. Locations vary by day of the week.

Winter Out of the Cold Program

Out of the Cold is a program set up to provide shelter, food and warm clothing for people who are homeless. Although services tend to operate out of church basements, synagogues and faith communities, Out of the Cold is an interfaith program, so people of all religions and beliefs are welcome.

The 2018–19 schedule outlines meals by day of the week. See dixonhall.org/housingservices/ootc and click on “2018-2019 Site Schedule.”

You can also visit the Out of the Cold Foundation at outofthecold.org and click on “Find a Location” and then the day of the week you are interested in.
