About CAMH Foundation

The Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH) Foundation is the fundraising arm for Canada's leading hospital for mental health. The Foundation has been transformational in advancing CAMH's world-leading clinical care and education, as well as its acclaimed research through the Campbell Family Mental Health Research Institute, Canada's premiere institute for brain science. The next phase of CAMH's ongoing renewal will blend innovative treatment centres with state-of-the-art research and teaching facilities with public green space, shops and residences integrated into the Hospital's 27-acre site in downtown Toronto.
