

New Beginnings Clinic

CAMH mental health & wellness clinic and case consultation services for refugee clients

Do you have a refugee client/patient with whom you are unsure how to proceed?

Consult a psychiatrist or social worker with special expertise in refugee mental health.

Call the New Beginnings Clinic Info Line: 416 535-8501 ext. 31683

Visit our website for more information:
www.camh.ca/newbeginnings

Who is it for?

- Primary care and other support providers can access the clinic to discuss and get advice on refugee client/patient cases.

What services are offered?

- Phone consultation is provided by psychiatrists and social workers with expertise in refugee mental health.
- For complex cases, we can provide assessment and brief, culturally sensitive interventions for refugees with psychological issues.

What clients/patients do services apply to?

- All refugees (government-assisted or privately sponsored) and refugee claimants in their first two years in Toronto.